

PSPA Volunteering

Role	Education Volunteer
Location	Throughout UK
Time commitment	Number of sessions to be agreed

Why we need you?

PSP & CBD are rare and little known. One of our aims is to make education and training available to as many health and social care professionals as possible, many of whom may not have come across PSP or CBD before. They may have little knowledge or understanding of the varying needs and effects involved. This role will help health and social care professionals to understand key information about the impact of living with PSP & CBD and thereby improve their practice.

We also aim to raise awareness in local communities by offering informative talks to interested groups.

What's involved?

- Completing all associated admin as required
- Committing to the delivery of a number of sessions to be agreed
- Completing feedback reports and keeping accurate records
- Attend regular training and development events
- A driving licence and access to a car is desirable.

What skills do I need?

- Be enthusiastic, enjoy speaking to groups and able to manage a group effectively
- Ideally you will have experience in public speaking and be confident in the use of PowerPoint
- Have an understanding of PSP & CBD and the wider work of PSPA (training will be provided on this)
- Have empathy with the aims of PSPA
- Be computer literate, have basic admin skills and be able to travel within your local area
- Passionate about raising awareness.

Rewards of becoming an Education Volunteer

- Increase your knowledge and understanding of PSP & CBD and the work of PSPA
- An opportunity for self-development
- The opportunity to meet new people and make new friends

- The opportunity to be valued as a part of a team
- Learn and develop valuable teamwork and people skills
- Make a difference to people living with PSP & CBD and their families.

Training

We will provide training and resources to enable you to plan and deliver free training sessions on PSP, CBD and the services offered by PSPA.

We offer a comprehensive learning package that can be completed in your own time and covers all aspects of the role. A visit to our offices in Milton Keynes as a final training day completes the process. This will also be an opportunity for you to meet and get to know members of staff and increase your understanding of the wider work of PSPA.
